I am here, alone, in my room

Listening to some music because it helps my soul

I am tired because it’s late in the morning

“Late in the morning”, huh, makes no sense

Morning is early, so late in the morning is early noon?

But it is 2 o’clock, 2 AM, so why do i say late?

Because it’s late in the evening, in the night

Yeah, that must be it

So here i am, with my headphones on

Trying to understand what i did today wrong

Oh, there’s so much, so much i can’t even list them

So then, if that is so, let’s think what i did right.

Hmmm, where do i begin? Or do i begin at all?

Have i done anything that helped someone?

Helped someone at work today, but that’s my job,

To help people with things that don’t work for them

Do those count?

Well, that is just some thought

Anything else that i can note? Here on this white page

What can i write to show off a little

To show that i am a good human being

I help

I get helped

I learn

I am learned

I show

I see

I laugh

I joke

I feel

Stop

That’s where i stop

Feel? Me?

Wow, i must be joking,

Feeling is something new, feel

Wow, i repeat.

What do i feel?

Hunger, of course, i just ate today

Some sandwiches, some oranges, some sweets

That is a feeling, but still

Not the one i talk about,

No, no,

The one i talk of is a feeling greater than that,

It can overcome hunger, thirst,

Pain,

All of them, but still

Pain, that feeling makes you feel pain also,

Not cellular pain, no,

Not muscular, headache, or whatever you may think of,

That feeling is creating a pain far greater than all.

Doesn’t sound that good now, does it?

But my friend, neighbour, close or not so close one

While it may come with some pain, it also comes with something that is far superior to pain,

Love, happiness, good,

Just good

If you ever feel you’re lost

Trust that feeling, you are loved

Pain will come, whatever way

Don’t despair, be with full faith

Love will come, and not alone

With some people full of hope

Hope my friend, for it will come

One you will live your life

To the full and being happy.
